

漢學英文二

課程大綱——2023

侯道儒 A419

Course introduction:

The primary objective of this course is to introduce you to important English language source materials that should prove useful in your future research. The source materials covered in the course include bibliographies, online resources, journals, and specialized academic dictionaries. Each week, one to two students will introduce the content of the assigned source materials and teach everyone in the class how to use them.

In addition, we will also continue to work at improving your reading skills by reading through important English language scholarship on Chinese literature and thought. Each week I will select one article, or part of one article, that we will read through together as a class. In addition, each week one student will give an oral report on an article that he or she has selected to read.

Finally, we will also read through several Chinese articles describing the current state of North American research in several different fields. These articles are found in 張海惠主編，《北美中國學——研究概述與文獻資源》。

Unlike last semester, there will be no mid-term or final exam. Your only written assignment will be to compile a comprehensive bibliography of English language sources on your topic of research.
