Course Aims / Description

Primary aim This course is designed to enhance overall English competence for the high-intermediate level students through listening, speaking, reading, and writing activities plus grammar review and vocabulary development. A full-skilled textbook plus a self-learning project will be integrated to learning tasks; thus, provides opportunities for students to practice language learning strategies, and get exposed to English anytime and anywhere. Through this way, students will be able to develop their confidence and fluency inside and outside the classroom. After taking this course, students are expected to consolidate their knowledge of English learning and engage themselves more confidently and fluently in authentic communication both in daily as well as school settings.

Subsidiary aim In this class, students will have opportunity to

1. review and practice various tenses to express and discuss the connection of events and issues between or across two time periods.
2. build up theme-based vocabulary and some transitional words for academic writing, and also, practice conversations, interviews, talks, and make formal presentations.
3. practice language skills, such as outlining while listening, reading, chatting, writing email, or problem-solving in speaking and writing tasks or activities.

- Corresponding CEFR Can-do statements
- [LISTENING] can with some effort catch much of what is said around me, but may find it difficult to understand a discussion between several speakers who do not modify their language in any way.
 - [READING] can understand articles, reports and reviews in which the writers express specific points of view.
 - [SPEAKING INTERACTION] can take an active part in conversation, expressing clearly my points of view, ideas or feelings naturally with effective turn-taking.
 - [WRITTEN PRODUCTION] can write at length about topical issues, even though complex concepts may be oversimplified, and can correct many of my mistakes in the process
 - [STRATEGIES] can generally correct slips and errors if I become aware of them or if they have led to misunderstandings.

Requirements & Rules:

1. Class attendance, lesson preparation and active class participation are required.
 - ✓ The instructor takes attendance almost every class throughout the semester. If you are all present whenever the instructor takes the roll, you will get 80 (i.e. the primitive score) in this category (i.e. Class attendance). Active participators in the class will certainly be awarded with some points in this category.
 - ✓ If you are absent from a class meeting, 10 points will be deducted from this primitive score.
 - ✓ If you are absent in case of uncontrollable situations (e.g. illness, emergency, important occasions, etc.), please email the instructor as you decide to take a leave and give the instructor the valid proof WITHIN TWO WEEKS. A receipt or a medicine prescription with correct stamp of date by accredited hospitals can be seen as a valid proof.
 - ✓ Being late for more than 20 minutes is treated as absence from that hour (5 points will be deducted).
 - ✓ If you are absent for more than 8 hours, you will definitely be flunked.
2. Absence from a class is no excuse for submitting assignments in time or ignoring assignments or the class you have missed. It is your responsibility to ask your classmates or the instructor what has been covered in the class.
3. Plagiarism on assignments and cheating on the exam is absolutely unacceptable. If someone is found plagiarizing or cheating, it means he/she will get a zero point for that assignment or exam.
4. There will be NO make-up exams or presentations unless you notify the instructor with valid and official reasons for your absence beforehand. If a group presentation is “crippled” due to your lateness or absence, you will receive no score on that particular presentation.
5. Late submission of the homework will be blocked. To unblock, you have to send teacher a letter to specify the reason. Any late submission of the homework will be deducted 5 points daily.
6. Mobile devices are only used for educational purposes relevant to the subject or tasks in the classroom setting with the permission of or at the request by the instructor.
 During class students are not to be seen with a cell phone in hand. Mobile phones are expected to be turned off or switched to a silent mode.
