COURSE GOALS & DESCRIPTION

This upper-intermediate English III reading course aims at helping freshmen consolidate and sharpen their English reading ability. Through extensive reading, students will learn to quickly capture the gist of an article and develop their vocabulary and reading skills in various disciplines. Students will also learn to understand the literal and figurative meaning of a passage, discuss and analyze the writer's purpose, and develop their critical thinking ability. The course will be both fun and informative, with a view to cultivating students' interest in English, so, hopefully, students are willing to make reading/studying English a life-long habit, to not only improve their English proficiency, but also broaden their perspective on life.

GRADING

1. Attendance and participation – 15%

Attendance and active participation in class are required :

a. For sick leave, please ask for leave by emailing the teacher prior to the class and submit a copy of the medication bag or receipt with correct stamp of date by accredited hospitals as a valid proof, within ONE week of the sick leave. One hour of sick leave will lead to 0.5 point deduction from the final grade.

b. For personal leave, please notify the teacher with a relevant documentary proof ONE week prior to your leave. One hour of personal leave will lead to 0.5 point deduction from the final grade.

c. Absence without valid proof will cost you 1 point from your final grade for one period of absence.

d. Being late for class for more than 10 minutes will lead to 0.5 point deduction from the final grade.

e. Students will get flunked for absence for more than 6 hours with no valid reasons.

f. Absence from a class is no excuse for not knowing the assignment and what has been discussed in that class. It is your responsibility to ask your classmates to collect the handouts or assignments for you, if any, as well as turn in in-class assignments, if any.

2. Assignments (including group projects)– 20%

Assignments must be typed and submitted on schedule. Plagiarizing is forbidden and will result in a zero grade. One-week late submission will still be accepted, but will lead to loss in grade points.

3. Quizzes –20%

If you are absent on the day when a quiz is given, you will have to take a make-up quiz the next week. Evaluation of the make-up quiz will be on a different basis.

4. Midterm exam – 10%

5. Uniform Final Exam – 35%

The final exam takes place in week 18, in the usual classroom and at class meeting time. Five units (units 1, 3, 5, 6, 8) will be covered.

CLASSROOM LANGUAGE

English 80% Mandarin 20%

CLASSROOM RULES

1. Cellular phones, ipads, laptops and any other electronic devices must be turned off in class and put in your bags, not on the desks. Checking your electronic devices will lead to poor participation grade.
2. All handouts/assignments should be kept till the end of the semester for later reference.
3. Masks should be worn throughout the class time. No eating in the classroom.
