

International Economics II

Spring 2024

Instructor: Ching-Yi Lin
Class Meeting: T 2, 3, 4
Office Hours: M 12:00-13:00
Office: TSMC 831
Email: lincy@mx.nthu.edu.tw

Text Book: Feenstra and Taylor, International Economics, Third Edition

The goal of this course is to understand the financial aspects of international economy, and how these are affected by the macroeconomic policies.

Outline of topics:

- Introduction to exchange rates
- The monetary approach to exchange rates
- The asset approach to exchange rates
- National and international accounts
- The gains from financial globalization
- Macroeconomic policies
- The international monetary system
- Currency Crises

Evaluation:

Two Midterms: 50%

Final: 40%

Homeworks: 10 %